LOOKING into the DARK PLACES

NEWSLETTER
26th March 2010

Hi everyone,
Just a few things that I would like to mention:

(I have had a lot of trouble writing this. I typed it straight into the email at first but it vanished just as I was about to send it. Even though a draft copy is always produced automatically, on this occasion it didn't. I've done my best to recall what the original had. Hopefully this one will get to you.)

I arrived back in the Isles a couple of days ago and I've been busy trying to find somewhere to live that will be quiet enough for me to continue my work, which now includes (again) numerology readings via the internet (Skype) as well as in person. (Thank you to everyone who has been patiently waiting. I'll be in touch as soon as I have things sorted.)

I was on the last flight out of Perth before the Mega Storm hit. (Which many people have not even heard had happened.) The rain began at 3.30pm as I was sitting in the plane on the tarmac on 22nd March 2010 (2231 [8] and 332233 [16]). These are expertly woven frequencies told in the numbers - and it developed into a massive storm that raged red over this, the most isolated city in the world, a powerful major covert centre of Darkness activity (check out the rune for another reason it got its name). The date holds the imagery of the Tarot's Fool (22) and delivered it by way of the Tarot Tower (16). The city of Perth and its environs are crammed with frequency driving occult symbolism and structures, as readers and subscribers will have seen in my articles.

A few days before I left Perth I commented to my companion upon the bizarre cloud patterns over Perth "It looks like we might be in for a 100-year Storm like they had in Melbourne and QL". (I've been linking to Colin Andrews' pages on recent suspected HAARP? -type weather manipulation over the Underworld.) A couple of days later I received some photographs from a regular Perth contributor of pink clouds that they had spotted over the city (which were very like ones taken over Cheshire by friends a number of years ago.)

The storm was signalling, and initiating, the end of one cycle and the beginning of another and of course violently! Its purpose was intended to be noticed. By who?...and why?

Well, as I write this it seems obvious that this is a stunningly telling strike in the weather war. War?

Surely a war needs at least two adversaries who also have to be aware that a war is at large? Does humanity realise this? I'd have to say that by far and away very, very few people do understand. So, who does know? Well, the Darkness and its troops and commanders, that's for sure; but I doubt very much that human beings are tuned up enough to even put their dukes up in such an occult battle. No; this is a battle of the giants, between good and evil, light and dark...the Goddess and the Demiurge and when I look at what got hit and what didn't I'd have to suspect that this one was a result for us. Nobody died in this deluge, mammon got hit, smugness got hit, and one of the major courses of occult energy and Dark delivery in the city got demolished...Jacob's Ladder, a structure that has figured in several investigations of satanic crimes on this website.

For months I've been intuitively prompted to include lightning bolt symbolism in the imagery for my work and in fact a brilliant professional artist offered and has been working on this very thing for me. I'm not sure whether I have permission to tell you his name but what I can tell you is that he has produced artwork for several big films and recording artists. His work is out of this world. I already have one draft and as soon as I know it is ok then I'll let you know who it is and you'll be able to see his work for yourselves. I was absolutely blown away by the sensitivity and awareness he demonstrates.

He is also clearly a very generous and kind man.

There are a couple of conferences this weekend that UK subscribers might want to know about or be reminded of:

The first begins today and lasts till Sunday night. It's the AVFour (love that number spelling). You can get your brain washed there cos it's in BATH Road near Heathrow Airport. Which means you can get your 'air washed too. (Just joking...I think...but probably not in some cases.)

The second is Probe International, in St Anne's Lancashire. It starts tomorrow (Saturday) and they're always worth going to. I'd most likely be going if I hadn't just landed.

...which reminds me...it was at Probe that I met Jennie Gosbell, who has recounted her reptilian experiences in her book 'The Reptilian Informant'. I spoke with Jennie for quite a while and have to say that I believed her – from my psychic point of view she carried an attachment and confirmed this to me when I mentioned and described it. This reptilian entity controlled her. She was both terrified and besotted by it, in my view, and though she wanted to rid herself of it she refused to do anything. That's what possessive entities can, and do, do. She had little chance. Jennie, as I reported on my tribute page, died in mysterious circumstances...

...Then, strangely for some but normal for me, just after my original attempt at this note (when the original email flew into the ether or Thames House) I get an email from the Birmingham Post newspaper...Now, you know how I feel about mainstream press...but this one began:

“Hello Ellis

I am contacting you from the Birmingham Post and Mail newspaper group in the UK as I am writing a tribute piece about Jennie Gosbell.

She worked in Birmingham for a while and her mother was telling me that she feels her death is suspicious and the Bahamas Police are trying to brush it under the carpet. The inquest is next week but there will be no witnesses.

I noticed you had a tribute to her on your website and I have read about her book and experiences and I wanted to get something from the people she was connected with and see how they feel.”

The reporter asked me to contact her, so I did. I agree with her mum. We'll have to see if anything comes of it.

“No witnesses.” “Inquest is next week.”

That is very sad; but it is also the reality of the environment that many of us are here to reveal and challenge.

Maybe it's the times... but I'm feeling more psychic than ever. I get messages all of the time that come true, personal to me or to my work and more often than not predict things that are going to happen, very often that coming day. A small one (of several) today is awaking with someone saying “Reed” or “Read” to me. Jennie's pen name was “Susan Reed”.

Are other readers having similar psychic increases?

Another very important heads up for you besides the conferences:

Robert Phoenix will be interviewing Jay Weidner on his FAR radio show on Sunday 28th (Monday in UK and Oz – and archived). I wholeheartedly recommend Robert's shows. I truly feel that Robert has the potential to be one of the very best hosts there are. His integrity, sincerity, respect, quiet passion and not forgetting his obvious experiential interdimensional understanding is a real joy. Do yourself a huge favour and GO FAR.

I'd just like to put an idea to you as well.. I've been offered a mailing list system that claims to be much more reliable and secure than the one I've been using has been but it will cost money. Would subscribers be willing to pay about £1 a month for newsletters? I'd like to hear your thoughts please.

Well that's it for now. It might be a little while before I can update the website. But it will be as soon as possible.

All the best and thanks for being here.

Cheers,
Ellis
